TO THE EAST 1950

REPORT OF THE EASTERN REGIONAL COMMISSION

FOR THE YEAR 1950

The Eastern Regional Commission was organized in 1949 to study and report on the economic and social conditions of the Eastern United States. The Commission's first report, "The Eastern United States: A General Survey," was published in 1950. This report provides a comprehensive overview of the region's economy, population, and social structure. It also discusses the challenges facing the region and offers recommendations for future development.

The Commission's findings are based on a series of studies conducted throughout the region. These studies cover a wide range of topics, including agriculture, industry, commerce, and transportation. The Commission's reports are intended to provide a basis for policy-making and to help the public understand the complex economic and social issues of the Eastern United States.
